

Rosemarie B. McQuillan, M.Ed., Ed S.
11Bush Pond Road, Norfolk, MA. 202056
508-380-7002
rosey@edtechtteacher.org

EDUCATION

2002 Ed S. in Assistive Special Education Technology, Simmons College, Boston, MA
1997 Masters in Education, Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA
Major in Students with Deaf-Blindness and Multiple Disabilities.

1976 Bachelor in Arts, Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA
Major in Special Education and Elementary Education

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Ed Tech Teacher Instructor Present

- Plans and provides trainings on how to successfully integrate curriculum based technology instruction for teachers and administrators. Creates and models best practices for technology integration in all content areas. Assists staff and learning how to construct a curriculum where all learners can successfully participate.

Assistive & Educational Technology Consultant 2016-Present

- Providing Assistive Technology and Accessibility services including needs assessments/comprehensive evaluations, consultation, training, professional development and demonstration of tools that support curriculum and environmental access.

Program Supervisor, Lesley University 2016-Present

- Liaison between the University, host schools and Teacher Candidates. Train Supervising Practitioners with the practicum process and explain expectations and requirements for teacher candidates. Observation of the teacher candidates and assessment of the teacher candidate's performance based on the Massachusetts Professional Standards for Teachers.

Wellesley Public Schools, Wellesley, MA

Assistive Special Education Technology Specialist 1998 – 2016

- Assistive Technology Specialist district wide Pre-K-12*, support all learners with technology tools and strategies that provide access to the curriculum. Administer, interpret and present testing results. Implement, evaluate and support technology integration. Develop and implement accessible instructional materials that support student learning. Provide comprehensive professional development that addresses the needs of all students in the district.

Teacher of the Visually Impaired 1998 – 2016

- Coordinate student support and teacher professional development for our students with visual impairments. Develop and implement technology supports that allow students visual access to the curriculum.

GRADUATE CREDIT COURSE OFFERINGS

Unleashing Student Creativity, McKeel Academy, Lakeland, Florida, August 2016.

Differentiating with Technology, EdTech Teacher, July 2016

Improving Student Learning using iPads in the 3rd and 4th Grade Classrooms, Wellesley Public Schools, June 2016.

AT & UDL: The Tools That Facilitate Learning, The Education Cooperative and Lesley University, co-facilitator for the Massachusetts Department of Education Summer Content Institute, Summer 2015

Access for All, a collaboration between The Education Cooperative and Lesley University, co-facilitator for the Massachusetts Department of Education Summer Content Institute, Summer 2014

AT and UDL: Leveling the Playing Field, a collaboration between The Education Cooperative and Lesley University, co-facilitator for the Massachusetts Department of Education Summer Content Institute, Summer 2013

Teaching and Learning with Assistive Technology, a collaboration between The Education Cooperative and Lesley University, co-facilitator for the Massachusetts Department of Education Summer Content Institute, Summer 2012

Making AT Happen, a collaboration between The Education Cooperative and Lesley University, co-facilitator for the Massachusetts Department of Education Summer Content Institute, Summer 2011

Advanced iPad, Wellesley Public Schools, January-February 2015 and April 2015-June 2015.

Google Apps for Education, Wellesley Public Schools, July 2015 and November 2015 an online course.

iPad Bootcamp-Wellesley Public School, September-November 2014

The Digital Natives are Restless: Technology in the Early Childhood Classroom, The Education Cooperative, October 2013

iPlan, iWrite, iPublish: Digital Storytelling for the iGeneration, The Education Cooperative, October-November 2012

iPad for Special Educators: Let Your Fingers do the Walking, The Education Cooperative, March-April 2012

iPads: Now What? A Hands on Workshop, The Education Cooperative, January, February and June 2012

iPad for Special Educators: Let Your Fingers do the Walking, The Education Cooperative, February 2012

Using the iPad in the K-8 Classroom, The Education Cooperative, March 2012

Using Technology to Improve ELL Achievement, EDCO Collaborative, co-facilitator with Laura English and Jenn Eramo, June 2012

iPads: A Teaching Tool for Student Engagement, The Education Cooperative, July 2012

iPossibilities: Beyond the Basics, The Education Cooperative, July 2011

iPads in Education, The Education Cooperative, March 2010

Promoting Access to All Learners-PAL, Massachusetts Department of Education Summer Content Institute, co-facilitator for the Massachusetts Department of Education Summer Content Institute, Summer 2010

It's App-etizing...iTouch for Educators, The Education Cooperative, July 2010

Access to Print: a framework for all Learners, Massachusetts Department of Education Summer Content Institute, co-facilitator for the Massachusetts Department of Education Summer Content Institute, Summer 2009 iPads in the Elementary Classroom, a collaboration between The Education Cooperative and the Scituate Public Schools, July 2009